Computers in the classroom include any digital technology used to enhance, supplement, or replace a traditional educational curriculum. As computers have become more accessible, inexpensive, and powerful, the demand for this technology has increased, leading to more frequent use of computer resources within classes, and a decrease in the student-to-computer ratio within schools.

For kids with 504 plans, the law is not as specific about AT. However, under Section 504, kids have the right to accommodations to give them equal access to school. This right includes AT. If the school determines that your child needs AT to access curriculum, it must provide that AT to your child, free of charge. If the school agrees to AT, make sure it's listed clearly in your child's ...
